

Coronavirus: Individual and small business impacts

The coronavirus (COVID-19) has affected all aspects of our lives including our financial well-being. To combat this pandemic, various relief measures are available to you.

Did you know?

- The IRS extended the April 15, 2020 federal income tax filing and payment deadline to July 15, 2020.
- First quarter estimated tax payments that were due April 15, 2020 are now extended to July 15, 2020.
- States are also providing tax relief for individuals and businesses.
- Emergency paid sick and family leave benefits are available to employees (with some limitations and exceptions):
  - Two weeks of sick pay must be paid when an employee is unable to work for coronavirus-related reasons.
  - The paid family leave is available for up to 10 weeks.
- Employers, including those self-employed, have available refundable tax credits to offset the costs for providing coronavirus-related leave benefits.

Helpful resources

Individuals and businesses need help now to navigate the challenges they are facing.

Here are some tools to check out:

- AICPA Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) Resource Center
- AICPA State Tax Filing Relief Chart for Coronavirus
- IRS Coronavirus Resource Center
- U.S. Small Business Administration: Coronavirus Small Business Guidance and Loan Resources

This copyrighted resource is provided exclusively to AICPA members and should not be shared, reproduced or used by anyone who is not a member of the AICPA without explicit consent from the AICPA Tax Section. See our terms and conditions. For information about content licensing, please email copyrightpermissions@aicpa-cima.com.